

Let's Get Down to Business

Turn To the Strong Ohio Bank You Can Trust

Businesses need money to grow and sustain themselves. And they need a bank that will be there for them throughout the ups and downs that are inherent in our economy. FirstMerit has made responsible decisions that we are proud of; decisions that let us focus on providing you and your business with the kind of banking you deserve. Decisions that make funds available to lend when you need them.

At FirstMerit we take our commitment to business and community seriously. We know you need your bank to be here for you with the money you need. Our strong and prudent decisions have allowed us to continue to grow, even in this most challenging of times. We are welcoming new business customers in 2008 at a record pace and our 13.2% annualized loan growth speaks volumes about our commitment to the local economy.

In our 160 years of experience in your communities, we haven't had to change the way we do business. When you bank with FirstMerit, you can count on having a local relationship manager and senior management that gets to know your business and is available when you need them. Our local decision making lets us understand your business and respond quickly to your loan requests.

With a complete set of banking products designed to fit the needs of your business, we are ready to give your business the attention you deserve.

FirstMerit Bank – Still here. Stronger than ever. Ready to lend.

The Bank is FirstMerit. The Advantage is Yours.
